Hingham Highway

Our aims lie in the attempt to incorporate all those memories of our four years at Hingham High and to blend them into a harmonious whole which we hope will always strike the note of memory in every student

Class Will

When in the course of unusual events it is deemed necessary for one to take leave of another, it necessarily entails much sorrow and pain on the part of both. The Class of '44 feels the burden of such "adieux" heavily on its respective hearts, and in order to soften the blow with regard to the pupils left behind in those hallowed halls, wishes to leave this missive as its last will and testament.

Viz:

- 1st: We leave to Miss Fowler a medal for having the "patience of Job."
- 2nd: Virginia Fay bequeaths her stateliness and poise to Anne Day.
- 3rd: "Brick," "Mag," and "Down," leave their somewhat dusty but beloved gym suit to "Bones." May it now rest in "piece."
- 4th: To Mr. Higgins, we give a book on his favorite subject, "embalming."
- 5th: Mildred Conroy wills her stenographic ability to anyone worthy of the honor.
- 6th: To "Squeaky" Kinnear, Doris Magner leaves her versatility.
- 7th: Paul O'Neill leaves his "Swoonatra" title to Bob Buckler.
- 8th: Ned Jeffry leaves his swell sports jackets and good-humor to his brother, "Bobbie."
- 9th: Patty Curley leaves her love of fun to "Tombstone" Lyons.
- 10th: Ralph Downey leaves his long list of "A's" as an inspiration to the incoming freshmen.
- 11th: Betty Ross leaves her winning smile to Janie Conway.
- 12th: Mary Cronin leaves her red tresses to Helen Smith.
- 13th: Ruth Lincoln leaves her incomparable drumming ability to any three students who can equal it.
- 14th: Bill Phillips leaves his pants to Herby Campbell.
- 15th: Ralph Hutchins leaves his football ability to anyone deserving of it.
- 16th: Bill Downey leaves his love for his jalopy to Victor Rhodes.
- 17th: Mae Wilkman leaves her talent for drum-majoring to Patty Byrne.
- 18th: Marilyn Walsh wills her executive abilities to her progressive sister.
- 19th: Johnnie Kearns forwards his title of "teacher's pet" to Oscar Beck.
- 20th: Betty Scott leaves her drawing ability to Velma Sheldon.
- 21st: Herby Walker leaves his "wacky-wolfish" attitude to Bobby Barrett.
- 22nd: To the Juniors we leave our love for the classics and our zeal and enthusiasm for "hep."
- 23rd: Bob Ayers leaves his bashfulness(???) to Joe Menice.
- 24th: To Miss Dorrity, we will a chemically-treated hot-water bottle which will work automatically when the temperature is less than 111° F.
- 25th: To the beloved school we leave the floors, walls, desks, paper, and books, so that in case of fire there will be a blaze worth watching.
- 26th: Bill Handrahan, Chris Conditto, John Chaupetta, Frank Reynolds, Raymond Streeter, Bill Sousa, Paul Hayden, Bill Russell, Clyde Nickerson, Clement Williams leave to all the undergraduates the inspiration to serve their country in its time of need.

In witness thereof we hereto subscribe and fix our seal this eighth day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four.

Signed: Class of '44.

Witnessed by Frank Sinatra.

Board of Marshals

This is a group organized to direct traffic, keep order in the corridors, and to help the students. During air raid drills, stationed at their different posts throughout the building, they direct students to the shelters. When all have reached safety, it is the duty of the marshals to check each room to be sure that no one has been left behind. Mr. Higgins as faculty advisor has done a grand job, both in maintaining order and in directing drills.

Football

Coach Cronin's fighting eleven chalked up a record of three victories to five defeats, but scored more points on Weymouth in the Thanksgiving game than any other team had scored on her this year. Special credit is due to Art Allum for his brilliant work as halfback, and the whole team deserves credit for the excellent spirit which it showed. The supporting spirit of the student body was fine too, and we are looking forward to a more successful season next year.
